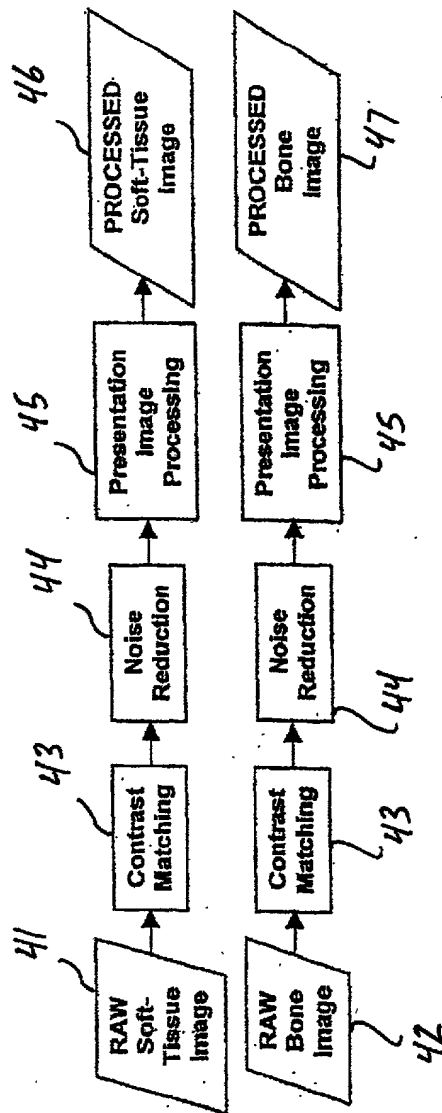

FIG. 5

FIG. 6 is a block diagram of a system for displaying hanging protocols. The system includes a display/hanging protocols block (52), a computer aided diagnosis block (54), and a visualization block (56). The display/hanging protocols block (52) is connected to the computer aided diagnosis block (54), which is connected to the visualization block (56). The visualization block (56) is also connected back to the display/hanging protocols block (52) via a feedback loop.
